

Cycling for Scouts

May 19, 2018

Since the beginning of Scouting, boys have pledged to keep themselves physically strong. Cycling is a part of each branch of the Boy Scout program and so we choose to focus on cycling to help achieve our financial goals.

Who: Open to anyone who would like to support scouting by going on a bike ride.

What: Cycling for Scouts is a special event to help fund the Scout Scholarship program. Scholarships are available for registered youth that require financial assistance with the purchase of uniforms, books, or camping event within the Cimarron Council.

When: Saturday, May 19, 2018. Pre-Register online at www.cyclingforscouts.com, or in the office at 317 N Grand, Enid, OK 73701

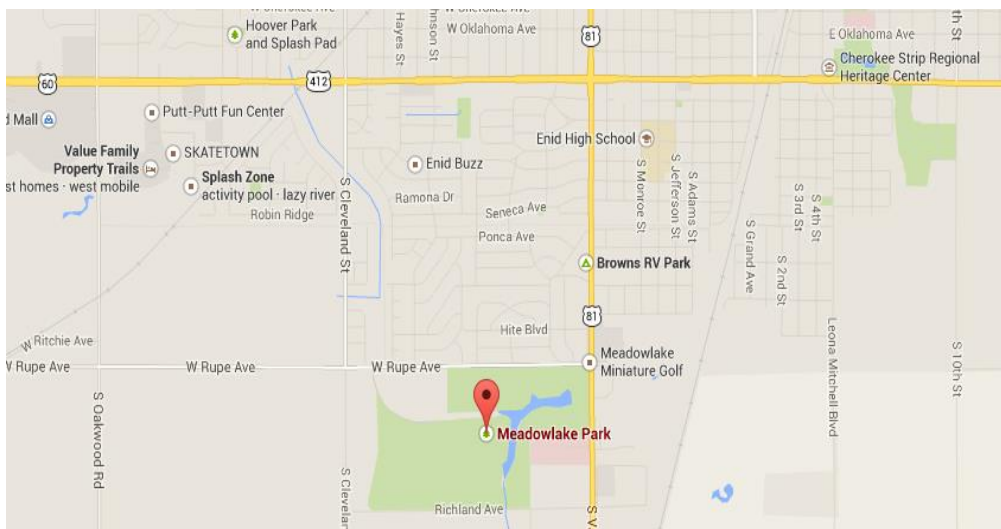

Check-in opens at 6:00 am on the day of ride. Rides begin at 8:00 am.

Where: All routes will depart from Meadowlake Park.

Cost: Fees are $30.00 for Single Riders and $50.00 for Tandem Riders.

All routes are on paved roads featuring both flat and hilly terrain. All roads will remain open to vehicle traffic. Riders should obey all traffic signs and signals.

* Please note* There are multiple rail road crossings on all routes.
